

FCC: The privacy afforded through the existing no-call program within the State of Wisconsin is a valuable right that I support. Do not weaken the program that is administered by the WDATCP simply to satisfy the commercial interests of corporations that do not hesitate to invade the privacy of our homes. Thank you, Brian Jindra.